

Mike Athens

Director

Mike's banking career spanned over twenty-three years in various roles from commercial lending to President/CEO of a $600 million dollar asset credit union.

Mike holds a BA in Chemistry and Math from the University of New Mexico and an MBA from the University of Phoenix.

He has been married for over thirty-three years to a wonderful woman he met during their Peace Corps service in West Africa.

Mike serves on three non-profit boards: the NM Ramp Project, Prosperity Works and the Albuquerque Women's Housing Coalition.

Traveling, home remodeling, volunteering, and walking his Siberian husky keep Mike busy.
